Important Announcement

Coronavirus / COVID-19

Per instructions from the Archdiocese of Chicago, there will be a few adjustments to our ordinary liturgical celebrations in response to concerns over Coronavirus/COVID-19. These are made as a matter of prudence, following guidance from the USCCB Committee on Divine Worship. All parishes within the Archdiocese of Chicago will make these adjustments effective immediately and until otherwise noted.

All Priests, Deacons, Altar Servers and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion must wash their hands before Mass begins and use an alcohol based anti-bacterial solution before and after distributing Holy Communion.

During all Masses and liturgies, the faithful are requested to:

- Refrain from physical contact during the Sign of Peace. (note: the Sign of Peace can be exchanged without physical contact)
- Refrain from the reception of Holy Communion via the chalice.
- Given the frequency of direct contact with saliva in the distribution of Holy Communion on the tongue, each individual should receive Holy Communion reverently in open hands for the time being.
- Refrain from holding hands during the Lord's Prayer.
- Refrain from using Holy Water fonts.

If you are sick or are experiencing symptoms of sickness, you are not obliged to attend Mass, and out of charity you ought not to attend.

Finally, please join in praying for all those who are sick with Coronavirus and other illnesses.

What to do about Mass when you are sick?

Deeply rooted in our Catholic upbringing is the urgency to attend Mass. We speak of it as an obligation and rightly so, but when an individual is sick, what should they do?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states in paragraph 2181 that The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own pastor.

Some good alternatives are to watch mass online at www.thesundaymass.org or to read the readings at home at www.usccb.org. You can also call our staff, 773-525-3016 to arrange for Holy Communion to be brought to your home. Ministers will bring Holy Communion according to scheduled times and availability.

Communion in the Hand

Today, the vast majority of Catholics in the United States were taught to receive Holy Communion in their hands. It is the normative instruction of the Catholic Church in the United States that this is the appropriate manner of reception. The approaching communicant makes a sign of reverence (usually a bow which is a charitable way of showing reverence without interfering with other communicants or the minister) and then brings both hands forward with one under the other as if presenting an altar. The host moves from one sacred altar to another sacred altar, the Mystical Body of Christ, the baptized faithful.

Some Catholics make a personal choice of devotion to receive Holy Communion directly on their tongue. This practice rose in popularity in the 10th century and was universally practiced in the Church in the 12th century. The 20th century introduced a reform to this custom leading to the widespread practice of receiving Holy Communion in the hand.

When possible, Ministers of Holy Communion make an effort to respectfully honor the personal piety of all the Catholic faithful. However, for the time being, Ministers of Holy Communion will not be able to honor this request due to instructions from the Archdiocese of Chicago regarding the prevention of Coronavirus.

We offer a reminder to the faithful that receiving Holy Communion in the hand is not only permitted, it is a sacred reminder of the trust that God has in the faithful as his own sacred vessels. This practice was revered by the early Church fathers who were closest to the Apostles. In 350 AD, St. Cyril of Jerusalem wrote, “When thou goest to receive communion go not with thy wrists extended, nor with thy fingers separated, but placing thy left hand as a throne for thy right, which is to receive so great a King, and in the hollow of the palm receive the body of Christ, saying, Amen”

We thank everyone for their patience and understanding. Ministers of Holy Communion will return to the practice of honoring everyone’s personal preferences when the Archdiocese of Chicago reinstates the option to do so.

Communion Under Both Species

In the third typical edition of the Missale Romanum it states that “Holy Communion has a fuller form as a sign when it takes place under both kinds. For in this form the sign of the Eucharistic banquet is more clearly evident and clearer expression is given to the divine will by which the new and eternal Covenant is ratified in the Blood of the Lord.” Thus it has been normal for Saint Andrew parish to encourage the faithful to participate in the reception of both species of the Eucharistic feast.

For the time being, we must suspend this practice, but the faithful are reminded of the Church’s teaching (articulated in the Council of Trent) that states “The Catholic faith teaches that Christ, whole and entire, and the true Sacrament, is received even under only one species, and hence that as regards the resulting fruits, those who receive under only one species are not deprived of any grace that is necessary for salvation.”

Pastoral Letter

by Deacon Eric Sorensen

*"We stumble, we fall,
and yet we rise and try again, more certain of our need of redemption."*

So, how is your Lenten fast going? You gave up fine food? Perhaps the gourmet appetizers at Wearin' the Green put an end to that. You gave up hitting the snooze button? Today's Daylight Saving really messed that up. One year I gave up coffee. You are lucky not to have met me then. So, why do we fast?

When we wander out into the desert, we begin our sacrifice with Jesus. We may become aware that the noise and distractions of our days dissipate. We may be more cognizant of temptations in our lives. But probably we admonish ourselves when we fail in our fast. We stumble, we fall, and yet we rise and try again, more certain of our need of redemption.

Our failures bring us to Compunction; related to the verb "to puncture." The purpose is to "deflate our inflated egos and challenge any self-deceit about our lives as disciples of Jesus." Yes, we fast from something for a period of time; so that when we "break" - fast, we are able to rejoice in God's glory, ever sweeter on Easter morning. So, if we are having trouble keeping our fast, perhaps we are succeeding in acknowledging our need of salvation.

Did you give up hot showers? If you did, you are fasting, and hopefully you are praying for an early Spring, April 12!

Blessings
Deacon Eric

“When we hang out with Jesus, we learn God’s language and God’s ways”

Scripture Reflection by Deacon Mark Purdome

In the African lowlands, you might spot a tiny antelope, only a foot tall and about 10 pounds, called Gunther’s Antelope. Being small, they have a long list of predators. But scientists noticed an amazing adaptation: a species of bird in the area, the Grey Lourie, has a similar list of predators and when the birds put out a warning call, the antelopes react and run and hide. Amazingly, scientists discovered that the antelope only respond to the specific warning cry that predators are near. But they couldn’t answer what, to me, is the real question: Who taught the antelope to listen to the birds?

We can ask ourselves a similar question based on today’s readings: Who teaches us to listen God? Like the antelope listening to the bird calls on the savannah, when we listen to the voice of Jesus it leads us away from fear and death and brings us grace and blessings.

So, while the scientists use words like “symbiotic relationships” to describe the antelope and the birds, I think it is all about whom you hang out with. By hanging out with the birds, the antelope learned their language. And when we hang out with Jesus, we learn God’s language and God’s ways.

But there is more to the story. Doesn’t it seem that the Gospel story is a little out of order? In a paperback adventure novel, today’s transfiguration would be the final scene: the hero has survived trials, suffered as he climbed a steep mountain, and his hidden glory and majesty are revealed in a dramatic final scene. But in the Gospel, this is in the middle, and we don’t leave the hero and his friends on the top of the mountain in glory. Instead, they must come back down and deal with the reality of the world around them. As Pope Francis said, “We cannot stay there! ... [We] return to the plain where we meet many brothers [and sisters] weighed down by fatigue, sickness, injustice, ignorance, poverty both material and spiritual. To these... we are called to bear the fruit of that experience with God, by sharing the Grace we have received.”

So first we need to hang out with God. One great way is to use the Examen from this year’s One Book One Parish to guide our prayer. And then, as we learn God’s language and God’s ways, we can help the world to listen to Jesus’ voice as he guides us away from fear and towards peace.

God Bless!
Deacon Mark

Learn at Home, for Individuals & Families

The 40 Days of Lent

The bible is filled with significant numbers, like 3, 7, 12, and 40. Have you ever wondered why Lent is connected to the number 40?

In the bible, the number 40 is mentioned quite a bit. During the flood, it rains for 40 days and 40 nights on Noah's ark. Moses spends 40 nights on Mt. Sinai. The Jewish people wandered for 40 years in the desert. Goliath taunts the Israelites for 40 days. Jesus fasts for 40 days in the desert. So let's consider: What do these events have in common?

They are times of waiting, testing, suffering... and they are all followed by a time of rejoicing. After the flood, God gives the world back anew. Moses receives laws to guide a lost people. The Jewish people are brought to their promised land. David beats Goliath. Jesus begins his ministry.

Whenever we hear the number 40, we might be tempted to focus on the time of suffering, but God is using this time to prepare us for some "glorious unfolding." We spend a good deal of time explaining to children the importance of waiting for Christmas - perhaps this is an excellent opportunity to engage in an activity which prepares your family for Easter!

Take time during Lent to prepare yourself for what God has in store for you.

Things to Do at Home:

Read: The Magnificat, Lenten Companion - an affordable booklet with one page daily readings.

Pray: Take the 40 second challenge: Start with 40 seconds of daily prayer, and increase the same amount every day.

Do: Establish a new tradition. Design a special calendar, or light a candle at dinner with a special prayer to acknowledge this time of Lent.

Religious Education K-8

Religious Education for grades K-8 heads into its final phase for the school year starting next week, Sunday, March 15, 2020. Students should come to the school from 8:45am to 9:50am to meet with their volunteer catechists. We will begin to review the final chapters of our religious education text book.

During these last few weeks of our program, we will also hold our annual Penny Challenge. Students are encouraged to bring loose change and bills so we can raise enough money to support our sponsored student through One Heart Uganda. For several years, this effort has been able to support the tuition of Matiamulumba Kakooza so he can attend a quality school in Uganda. Thank you for helping us once again with this effort!

For Adults

One Book One Parish

This year's book is called A Simple Life-Changing Prayer. It is a user's guide to the Examen prayer taught and used by Saint Ignatius of Loyola and the Jesuit priests.

In the 125th Anniversary of Saint Andrew parish we hope to foster the spiritual gift of reflection. It is through reflection that we see the graces that God has bestowed on our life and how we can savor them to nurture our faith life. A Simple Life-Changing Prayer will help you do that. Practice the prayer with us throughout the year and see how it changes your life! Many parishioners have already started and are beginning to see the results!

Love

Our mission is fulfilled when we enter the world and in the presence of our friends, our co-workers, and especially our families, we are more capable of loving one another, as we have been loved.

Stations of the Cross

Join us during Lent to pray the Stations of the Cross on Fridays at 6:30pm in the main church.

What are the stations? This is a meditative form of prayer that recalls the journey that Jesus made toward his crucifixion. In his final act of self giving love, we are inspired and strengthened to have the courage to do what is right in our daily lives.

Greater Chicago Food Depository

The next volunteer session at the Greater Chicago Food Depository will be on Saturday, March 21, 2020 from 8:30am to 11:15am. Volunteers package food which will be sent to local Chicago food pantries. You can also help us earn credit which we give local pantries so they can purchase food. Your help is needed! Please contact Nancy Holland at neh213@gmail.com to sign up to volunteer.

Leave a Legacy

Saint Andrew has served Lake View for 125 years. We are grateful for the ongoing success of ordinary Sunday Giving and for our Capital Campaign but many long term “big” projects are reserved for the infrequent occasion of a bequest. Have you considered leaving Saint Andrew in your estate planning? Do you have RMDs from IRAs that must be taken but present significant tax burdens? Email info@standrew.org for more information about how a legacy gift or RMD from IRA gift can make an impact to the future of Saint Andrew.

Get Involved

STEWARDSHIP OF GIFTS

Saint Andrew is a community of disciples from all over the city, country, and world who make the Lakeview neighborhood their home. We gather to learn about and make known God's love and promise of salvation so we can transform the world through our everyday actions.

We invite you to share in the responsibility for care and maintenance of this community by generously contributing of our Time, Talent and Treasure.

Time - We take time to pray and to grow as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Talent - We offer our skills and talents for the organization success of our community.

Treasure - We contribute generously from our financial resources for the wellbeing of our parish.

VOLUNTEER

Greater Chicago Food Depository

For every month in 2019, Saint Andrew volunteered at the Greater Chicago Food Depository. Help us make 2020 just as special, by signing up for our next session on March 21, 2020, 8:30-11:15am. New for 2020 is the addition of ages 11-15 (with a parent) for our repack sessions! To sign up, email Nancy Holland at neh213@gmail.com

Religious Education

Our program has been growing steadily, which means we will need more teachers next year! If you have felt a "nudge" from God to share your faith with students, why not try it out as an Aide during one of our final spring sessions? To express interest, email RE@standrew.org or call David Heimann at 773-525-3016.
